COMPANY PROFILE

Premium

Premium Translation Agency is a Moscow based company which unites language professionals working together as a team since 1995. It has a huge data base of interpreters and translators all over the world, and an impressive track record of supporting high level events conducted between the Russian Federation and other countries.

Premium Translation Agency works with only proven subject matter experts, or provides extensive training and/or reference materials to ensure interpreters meet a client's requirements.

CLIENTS

Satisfied Clients include European Command, United States Army Europe (Exercise Division and the International Operations Division), Special Operations Command, Joint Task Force, IED United States Air force Europe, United States Navy Europe and the Defense Attaché Office, United States Embassy, Moscow, Russia, Northrop Grumman Technical Services, General Electric.

Our interpreters have served the U.S. Department of Energy, U.S. Department of State, U.S. Department of Defense, NASA, and other U.S. governmental organisations.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Premium

To date, Premium Translation Agency has supplied 350 + interpreters for U.S./Russian combined exercises, planning conferences, seminars, courses, working groups, technical meetings, and for other events, providing up to 60 interpreters at a time, and has translated over 35,000 pages of technical documents.

More specifically, we have provided written translation, simultaneous and consecutive interpreting services for such diverse events as Torgau 04-08, Shared Response-06-08, General Officers' Planning Conferences, Colonel's Working Group, Northern Eagle-2004, Combined Endeavour, BALTOPS, Joint Staff Talks, and the Warriors' Leadership Course.

In addition to providing interpretation and translation services for the abovementioned organisations and their Russian equivalents, our employees have served as interpreters for numerous commercial entities and private companies and international organisations, including UN, ILO, Tasis, EBRD, KPMG, World

Bank, PWC, Euroforum, US Embassy, US Chamber of Commerce, Northrop Grumman Technical Services, Bechtel, Parsons, Chevron, Amoco, BP, GE, Conoco, Statoil, British Gas, TNK-BP, International Launch Services, Motorola, Hughes, Lockheed Martin, SAAB, Boeing, European Space Agency, Space Systems Loral, Alenia, etc. Our interpreters worked at the

Summit in Islamabad in 1995 and supported The Dialogue of Civilisations in Bahrein in 2007.

CAPABILITIES

While well-versed in all aspects of interpreting for military exercises and planning conferences, Premium Translation Agency's interpreters are extremely experienced at interpreting in a wide range of formal and informal settings between senior and midlevel representatives of the US and Russian militaries and governments, as well as commercial and industrial projects.

Many of Premium Translation Agency's employees have a broad background in interpreting during conferences and negotiations devoted to the nonproliferation of weapons of mass destruction, including facility safeguards and security, material protection, and control and accountability.

Our capabilities include not only Ru-En, but also Arabic, French, Spanish, German and Chinese language combinations.

COMPANY MANAGEMENT

Premium

Premium Translation Agency's key personnel have not only extensive management experience in the interpretation and translation fields; they are also recognised as superior interpreters, particularly in the areas of military-to-military contacts, international relations, disarmament, oil and gas and other technical areas.
